Amendments to the Specification:

An email server 1408, hosted by email server node 1222, can be operably coupled to a requestor email client ~~[[1414]]~~ 1406, the recipient email client, and the legal document server. As previously noted, only a single email server is shown for exemplary purposes. The email server accepts and holds email messages exchanged between legal counsel, the marketing representative, and the customer.

Page 25, lines 16-23, amend the paragraph as follows:

FIG. ~~[[19]]~~ 13 is an exemplary legal document requestor email message as created by a NDA embodiment of a legal document server. The requestor email message can be sent to the requestor when a legal document server has completed generation of a legal document. The requestor email message includes a synopsis of the previously described recipient information 2200. The requestor email message further includes a synopsis of the previously described subject matter information 2202.

Page 29, lines 5-9, amend the paragraph as follows:

Referring again to FIG. 10 illustrating a home page for a NDA embodiment of a legal document server, a legal document administrator reaches a legal document status reporting embodiment of the current invention by selecting "View and Amend Pre-Existing NDA's (Requires log in)" 1802.
